Village starts buying land for safety building

The Antioch village board Monday night decided to buy two pieces of property, the first steps toward constructing a new safety building just west of the post office on Orchard St.

Mayor Michael J. Haley and Clerk Marilyn J. Sterbenz were authorized to execute contracts to buy the properties at:

- 441 Orchard St., owned by Almuth Schwatka, for $50,775 on a five-year contract with 29 percent down.
- 817 Turner Drive, owned by Frank Feiler, for $61,000 with five annual installments. The first payment will be $10,365.

THREE OTHER PARCELS of land near the intersection of Orchard and Turner may be purchased soon, it was indicated.

A new safety building would provide adequate housing for the village's fire department and rescue squad. It hasn't been decided whether or not the police department would move to a new safety building or stay on Main St. and expand into the present rescue squad area.

IN ANOTHER MATTER Monday night, Mayor Haley asked trustees Don Amundsen and Irv Walsh to review the parental responsibility ordinance adopted in June.

The police department wants an explanation of the law, which holds parents responsible for violations by juveniles.

Six residents of Oakwood Knolls subdivision appeared at the village meeting to complain about "loud music" coming from a house on Maplewood Drive.

One of the neighbors said a band of about six members

HERMAN HOLBEK

Herman Holbek dies suddenly

Herman Holbek, founder of the Antioch Rescue Squad and one of the community's best-known residents, died Tuesday morning at his home.

Mr. Holbek, who lived at 914 Hillside Ave., had served Antioch as a member of the village board, as police commissioner and as a precinct committeeman. He was one of the leaders of the rescue squad for 25 years.

He is survived by his wife, Doris; three sons, Richard and Hugo of Antioch, and Herman Jr. of Camp Lake, Wis.; one daughter, Mrs. Michael (Jean) Abear of Antioch; a sister, Elsie Andersen, who lives in Denmark, and eight grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by three brothers and one sister.

FUNERAL SERVICES will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Strang Funeral Home, 1055 Main St., in Antioch. The Rev. Philip O. Laurin of St. Stephen Lutheran Church will officiate.

Interment will be in Liberty cemetery, Trevor, Wis. Friends may call at the funeral home from 4 to 9 p.m. today (Wednesday). Friends desiring may make contributions to the Antioch Rescue Squad in Mr. Holbek's memory.

In March of 1976, Mr. Holbek was honored as Antioch's V.I.P. in the annual dinner-dance at St. Peter's parish.

HE WAS BORN in Copenhagen, Denmark, and lived in Chicago for several years before moving to Antioch where he lived for more than 40 years.

As one of the founders of the Antioch Rescue Squad, he acted as its chief for many years, retiring in 1964.

He had operated a Ben Franklin store in Antioch for several years and worked in the Lake County treasurer's office for 15 years, retiring in 1975.

Mr. Holbek was a member of the Antioch Lions Club, the Antioch Township Republican Club and the board of directors of the Mid-America Chapter of the Red Cross of Lake County.

WHEN ANTIOCH PAID tribute to Mr. Holbek last year as its V.I.P., the co-chairmen of the event, Betty and Chuck Hope, said:

"Herman logged thousands of hours answering rescue squad calls, teaching first aid, and raising funds. No task was ever too difficult for him, no matter how tragic."

"Herman Holbek's unselfish dedication to a vital

Restaurant hit by burglars

Joe and Helen's Little Acres, a restaurant on Loon Lake south of Antioch, was burglarized Sunday night.

Lake County sheriff's detectives said the entry was gained through a window while the owner, Helen A. Sterbenz, was away. She had closed the restaurant at 9:30 p.m. Sunday.

Police said the burglar, or burglars, carried off a strongbox safe which contained valuable old currency and an undetermined amount of money, including weekend receipts and money Mrs. Sterbenz had been saving for an upcoming vacation.

Detectives said the burglary apparently was done by someone familiar with the layout of the resort.

AT VILLAGE MEETING

Knoll's residents complain of noise

apparently practices in the home on certain nights, keeping people awake and otherwise disturbing their evenings "because of the noise."

VILLAGE ATTORNEY Andrew C. Lynch said the village doesn't have a noise ordinance because of the difficulty of drawing one up.

"What is noise to some people may not be noise to others," he said.

The village does have a disorderly conduct ordinance, Lynch said, but police have a problem enforcing it unless they're sure they can prove disorderly conduct in court.

Mayor Haley said:

"I wouldn't like to be kept awake at night because of people playing loud music. I don't think that's fair and I don't think you people deserve this. We'll do what we can to solve the problem. I'll discuss it with the police department."

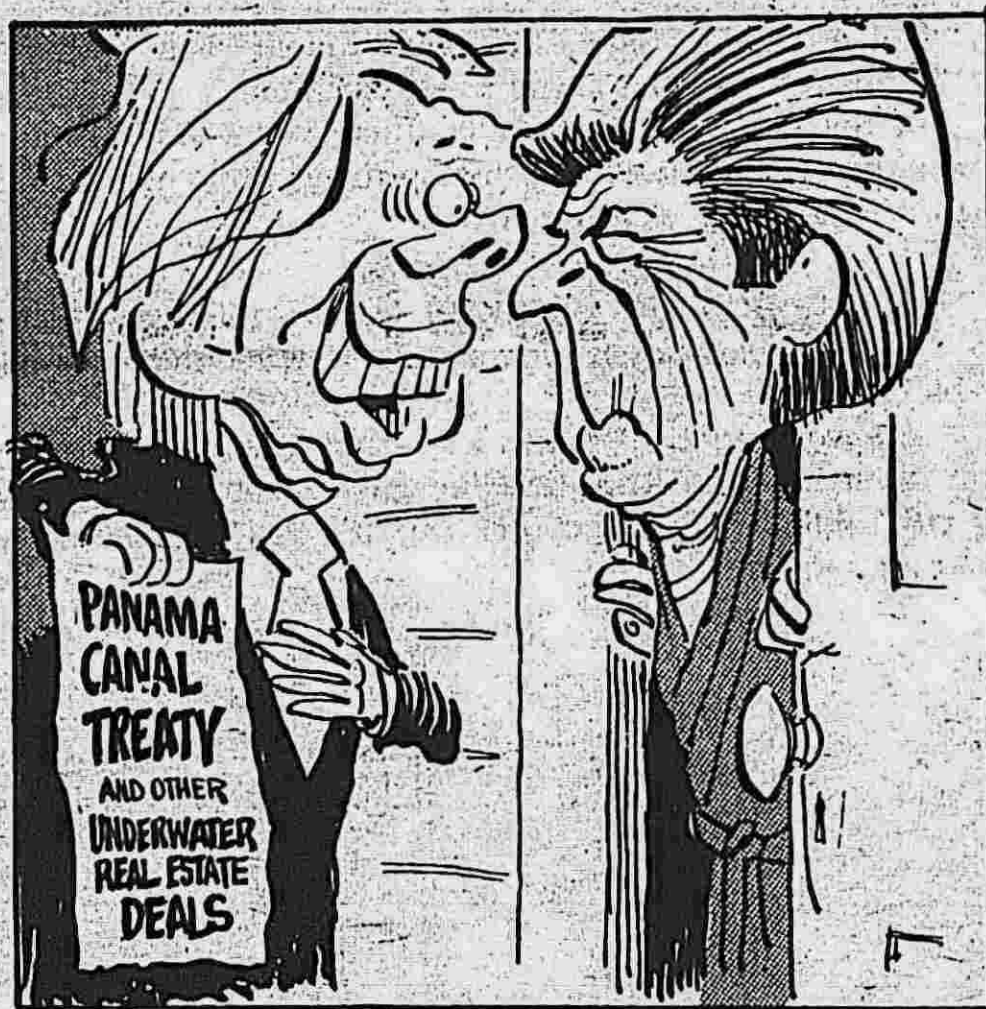

THE ANTIOCH CHAMBER of Commerce will move into a portion of the vacated township office at Main and Orchard streets.

The township office has been moved to the new building on Rte. 173 and its former headquarters will be partitioned so that the Chamber can use some of the space.

Trustee Vern (Barney) Barnstable received board approval to include the paving of Anita Ave., north of Greenbriar, in the Anita St. paving project at an additional cost of $6,721.

The board also passed trustee Edgar Simonsen's motion to authorize the village engineer to write and protest the state of Wisconsin's dumping into the Fox River and the "quality of their effluent."

THE TRUSTEES ACCEPTED the village zoning board's recommendation not to accept a zoning petition which would allow the selling of cars at 906 Hillside.

● Contrary to prevailing male opinion, the first recorded automobile accident (May 30, 1896) was not caused by a woman, but by a man. His victim? Evelyn Thomas, whom he hit on a New York City street while she was out bike-riding.

'My Fair Lady' was great

ANTIOCH'S PM&L Theatre gave the community one of its most memorable events of the summer when it staged the great musical, "My Fair Lady," on recent weekends.

At the most, we have seen only one "so-so" performance by PM&L in more than three years. All of the group's other shows have been outstanding, but "My Fair Lady" ranks as the best yet.

Too bad, for those of you who missed it, that the three-weekend run is over. We have talked with people who said they'd gladly pay to see it again.

Mary Chris LaKome exceeded all of her previous PM&L accomplishments in the role of Eliza Doolittle. She and Ken Smouse, who made the role of Col. Pickering delightful, have talents that could succeed far beyond a community the size of Antioch.

Don Beveroth was at his best as Alfie Doolittle. A fine comedian, he played the role as Art Carney might have. There is a resemblance, you know.

Jane Pickus, Waukegan News-Sun reviewer, usually finds fault somewhere with PM&L productions, but we disagree with her criticism of Bill Misik as Professor Henry Higgins. No one could match Rex Harrison's performance, unless his name was Robert Preston ... but we thought Misik was outstanding and gave his own excellent personality to the role.

We also disagree with Ms. Pickus' feeling that "the pace of the show was slow and many of the characterizations needed expanding." For us, the three hours went too fast.

A lot of people deserve credit for PM&L's success here, but just for a few we must praise Hank Apostol and Bill Sershon for set construction, and Pat Sershon and her aides for set decor.

What can PM&L do for an encore? Well, since we like musical comedies, we can't wait till next April when the troupe presents "Anything Goes," with music and lyrics by the immortal Cole Porter.

Ev Oftedahl, who had retired from the rescue squad after serving for 30 years, told humorous and interesting stories of the early days when he and Mr. Holbek were among the volunteer squad's "pioneers."

Gene Tunney, world's champion heavyweight boxer, will train at Cedar Crest, near Antioch, for his title bout with former champion Jack Dempsey at Soldier Field, Chicago, September 22.

One of the most exceptional performances ever witnessed from a local platform was given Tuesday evening at the Chautauqua, when Miss Lida Palmer, of Antioch, substituting on an hour's notice, played one of the leading roles in the comedy, "The Whole Town's Talking" with great success. Late in the day one of the actors was rushed to the hospital in Chicago for an emergency operation and the management was forced to find someone to read the lines since it was too late to obtain another number. Miss Palmer, though she had never rehearsed with the cast and had had the manuscript but a short time, read the part with skill and assurance and gave an interpretation which gained the approbation of the entire audience. So well pleased was the management with her work that she was urged to go with them the following day to Davis, Ill., an invitation which she declined.

That elusive cougar that has been sighted all along the North Shore area between Chicago and Winthrop Harbor has been "sighted" in Antioch.

The Chicago Daily News, which runs a regular feature entitled "What Ever Became of ...," this week did one on Antioch's Jim McMillen.

"What ever became of Jim McMillen, the University of Illinois football star and former wrestler who was considered one of the best guards in professional football when he played with the Chicago Bears from 1924-28?" the article asked.

Well, in case you're a stranger in town, Jim, who owns a farm here, operates a cement block and septic tank firm in Antioch. He is also vice-president of the Chicago Bears professional football team.

Antioch is now the gambling capital of Illinois, according to the U.S. Department of Internal Revenue's Chicago district office. H. Historical fashion show highlights St. Peter's luncheon

THE WIFE OF GENERAL Robert E. Lee, Mary Lee, was portrayed by Jeanne Lindgren in the fashion show presented by Phyllis McMillen at St. Peter's annual Salad Bar Luncheon Saturday. Called "Ladies of Liberty," the show featured replicas of dresses worn by women of the Civil War era.

MARILYN STERBENZ was dressed as Rachel Jackson, wife of President Andrew Jackson. A student of history, Mrs. McMillen makes or adapts 90 percent of the gowns worn in her fashion shows.

PHYLLIS McMILLEN (left) poses with Ricky Apostol and daughter Tricia. Ricky portrayed Mary Brown, wife of John Brown and the mother of 11 children. It was easy for Ricky... she and her husband, Hank, have 9 of their own.

JACKIE VOGT was Cordelia Harvey in the fashion show. Mrs. Harvey, of Kenosha, was the wife of Wisconsin's governor and served as a nurse in the Civil War.

THE FAMOUS AUTHOR Harriet Beecher Stowe, who wrote "Uncle Tom's Cabin," was portrayed by Betty Patterson.

MARY ST. PIERRE MODELED a replica of a dress worn by Abraham Lincoln's wife, Mary, in the fashion show at St. Peter's. The annual Salad Bar Luncheon attracted a capacity crowd to the parish social center.

ANN KAKACEK, Phyllis McMillen's daughter, was attired as Varina Davis, wife of Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy during the Civil War. Mrs. McMillen's historical fashion shows are the result of tremendous research and detailed reproduction of the clothes worn by women of another era.

GUARANTEED FARES
United Airlines is the first to start so I am sure all the others will follow.

A frequent complaint from you, the traveler, is the airline industry practice of collecting the additional fare when the CAB has granted a fare increase between the date the ticket has been purchased and the date you travel.

We are always having to explain for the airline industry to our clients, either before or after the trip why the additional fare was or must be collected.

Now, as of Aug. 15, the CAB will have a rule which permits the airline to guarantee the local fare in effect on the date the ticket is purchased subject to the following conditions:

1. The ticket must be purchased prior to the approval date of the increased fare.
2. The ticket must indicate that a confirmed reservation is held on a specific flight, date, etc.
3. The originating flight shown on the ticket is not voluntarily changed by the

Clever Clovers win many 4-H awards

By GARY QUEDENFELD

The Clever Clovers went through another successful year at the Lake County Fair.

Out of nine 4-H members in the club, they received 31 A ribbons, including an A ribbon for the club booth.

We also received 13 B ribbons and two C ribbons. We are especially proud of the following 4-H members: Marsha Fallon received two Grand Champions - one in "Pictures for Pleasure" and one in "International Foods."

Steve Stowinski received a Grand Champion award in "Gun Safety."

Karen Stowinski received a Reserve Champion in "First Year Cooking."

Lorna Whitton received two Reserve Champion awards - one in "Conservation" and another in "Pictures for Pleasure."

On July 24, Gary Quedenfeld gave a demonstration on Leathercraft in the 4-H building at the Lake County Fairgrounds. His picture and an article appeared in the Waukegan News Sun. Even though they spelled his first name wrong he was still happy about it.

Also, some of the members of our club worked in the information booth, pop stand, and also in the 4-H zoo.

Our first 4-H meeting of the new year will be Sept. 1. If anyone is interested in joining our 4-H club please come to the State Bank of Antioch at 7 p.m.

Antioch swim team sets 30 records

Tuesday night, Aug. 9, was a record-breaking night as the Antioch Swim Club held its annual "Record Breaker" meet and team party.

The girls set 16 new records and the boys accounted for 14... a grand total of 30 new records. Each swimmer breaking a record was presented a medal by the team sponsor, the State Bank of Antioch.

IN THE MEET each swimmer could enter three events, swimming against his teammates, trying to break records established in past years for his age group.

Seven swimmers set new records in all three events they entered: Laura Clewis, Shelly Volling, George Bessette, Sue Harrison, Phil Jaworek, Jack Fields and Trina Spietz.

Other records were broken by John Clewis, Greg Shepard, Carol Berry, Ted Bessette, Denise Latz, Jeannie Cilik and Sheryl Harrison.

Other swimmers who earned first place ribbons were Brian White in freestyle and breaststroke, Todd Gedville in backstroke, and Colleen Kelly in breaststroke.

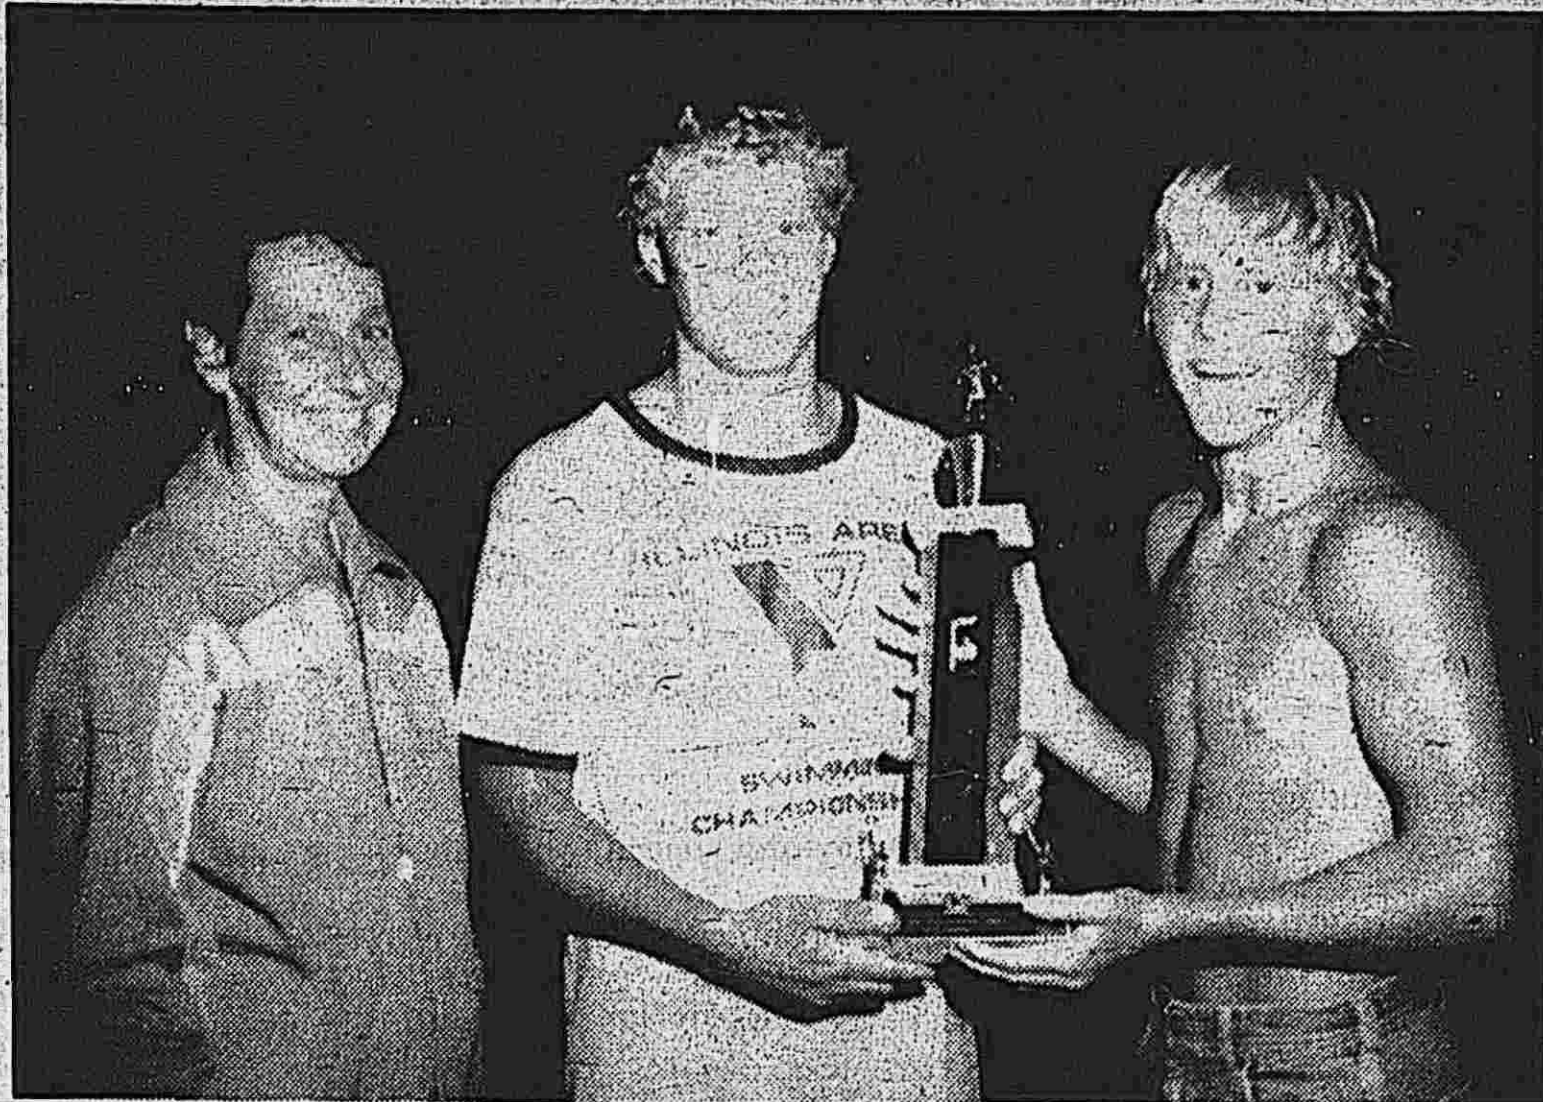

There were no records broken in the 9 and 10 age group. First place winners included Kaky Kelly and Joel Bellucci in both freestyle and butterfly, Kerry Kelly and Brian Wogsland in backstroke, and Jerry Smith and Stacy Harrison in breast stroke.

AT THE PARTY following the meet, special awards were presented by Coach Marty Berry to the most improved swimmer in each age group. Those honored were John Wierschem and Cindy Morris, 8 and under; Derek Klein and Katie Shepard, 9 and 10; Matt Ludwig and Kathy Latz, 11 and 12; Joe Emmerick and Jennifer Czapiewski, 13 and 14; and Dave Volling and Denise Latz, 15 and 16.

Special awards for leadership were presented to Trina Spietz, Sheryl Harrison, Carol Berry, Denise Latz, and David Volling.

The team presented its first place trophy from the Antioch Invitational to Pres Reckers, representing the State Bank. It will be on display with other trophies won this summer by the team.

The highlight of the evening came when the Doug Dodd Memorial Trophy for "Swimmer of the Year" was presented to Phil Jaworek.

DODD MEMORIAL TROPHY WINNER FOR 1977 - Phil Jaworek, center, received the "Swimmer of the Year" award from 1976 recipient Jack Fields, right, and happy approval from Mrs. Marty Berry, left, team coach. The award was presented to Phil for his outstanding contributions to the Antioch Swim Club program, sponsored by the State Bank of Antioch.

When garbage helps make electricity, it isn't garbage anymore.

Last October 27, the City of Chicago and Commonwealth Edison dedicated a unique waste treatment plant.

This plant will recycle ordinary trash into a new kind of fuel—fuel that can be burned with coal in Edison's Crawford generating station to produce electricity.

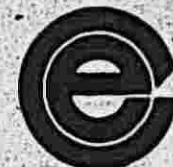

When operating at full capacity, this facility will process 1100 tons of waste material per day. The "new fuel" it produces will replace about 100,000 tons of coal per year, and provide enough electric power to serve approximately 45,000 Chicago homes.

Equally important, this converted refuse contains practically no sulfur, and produces very little ash.

All in all, this is a promising solution to two pressing urban problems: what to do with municipal wastes, and how to develop alternative fuels that are both inexpensive and environmentally acceptable.

Antioch Open attracts area golfers

Some of the stars of last year's tournament already have signed up for the second annual Antioch Open golf championship.

This year's 36-hole competition will be played at Spring Valley Country Club, just north of Antioch, on two Sundays, Sept. 11 and 18.

The deadline for entries is 16 days away - Friday, Sept. 2.

MORE THAN 50 GOLFERS played in the first tournament last year at Antioch Country Club. The committee is expecting between 60 and 80 players this year.

Twelve already have entered, including last year's Class A champion, Charlie Anderson.

Anderson shot 84-79 - 163 to tie for first with Vern Thelen, who had 81-82. Anderson won the playoff in the Class A flight, which is for players who shoot in the 80s.

Charlie said he is averaging 80 this year and is moving up to the championship class (for players who shoot in the 70s.)

The only other entrant in the championship class so far is Cliff Houghton, who finished in a four-way tie for second last year. The playoff for second place was won by Rich Higgins, who has indicated he will enter again this year. John Roach won the championship flight last year.

THELEN WILL BE BACK for another shot at the Class A title. So will Dean Schultz, who placed third last year with 18-hole rounds of 74 and 91.

Following is a list of players who have entered so far: Championship class - Clifton A. Houghton, C.L. (Charlie) Anderson.

Class A - Andy Anderson, Vern Thelen, Dennis Korjenek Sr., Art Blecke, Dean Schultz, Al Atkins.

Class B - Jon M. Lasco, Bill Setek, Arthur Kelly, Bob Pedersen.

ENTRY BLANKS ARE available at Spring Valley and at the Antioch News. A blank also appears on page 17 in today's paper.

Sunday, Sept. 25, will be a rain date in case the tournament has to be postponed on either Sept. 11 or 18.

THE ENTRY FEE is only $15 for 36 holes of tournament golf. Players can either walk or ride golf carts.

The tournament is the first of its kind for this area. There are three flights - championship for players who shoot in the 70s; Class A, for those who score in the 80s, and Class B, for those who shoot 90 and over.

All contestants will play from scratch against golfers of their own ability.

The Class B winner last year was Bill Effinger of Lake Villa, who defeated Bill Nauman of Antioch in a playoff. Mike Sexton was third and John O'Hara fourth. Since all four averaged in the 80s during last year's 36 holes, they will move up to the Class A flight if they enter this year.

LAST YEAR'S tournament was limited to golfers from the townships of Lake Villa and Antioch. This year it also will be open to golfers who live or work in Salem township. Players must be at least 16 years of age.

They will begin teeing off at 11 a.m. on Sept. 11 and at 1 p.m. on Sept. 18.

The top three finishers in each class will receive trophies. Prizes also will be given. All proceeds will be returned to players in the form of prizes.

Dukas, Cash repeat at Waukegan track

It was a night for repeat winners at the Waukegan speedway on Sunday night.

George Dukas won his second consecutive super stock feature and Larry Cash won his second hobby feature in as many nights.

Dukas crossed the line with his third feature win of the season followed by Jones, Conrad Morgan, Dave Evans and Bobby Dotter, who had earlier won the trophy dash and a heat race.

Jones won the other heat which ended with a flurry as Dukas' bumper came off at the finish line, sending a number of cars swerving to avoid it.

THE HOBBY FEATURE was full of excitement. Jan Brennan lost a wheel in a shower of sparks on the backstretch. Larry Cash got tangled up in it and lost his passenger-side door. It didn't stop Cash as he took the lead away from Warren Shaver and went on to win the 12-lap feature.

DESPITE THE COOL evening Saturday, the racing action was hot and heavy.

Chuck Clark, driving a Camaro, set fast time and then the current sportsman point leader went on to win the 25-lap main event.

In two special 5-lap grudge races, Clark held off Bill McDonald to win the sportsman race and Larry Cash defeated Dennis Topcik in their hobby matchup.

ANTIOCH PITCHER Carl Amundsen, who completed an outstanding Little League career here this summer, pitched a no-hitter last weekend as Antioch defeated Mt. Prospect 3-0 in the Bob O'Farrell Bronco tournament in Waukegan. The Antioch team was scheduled to play Buffalo Grove Tuesday night.

FIRE FIGHTING TODAY

384 ways to leave your bucket behind

By LU BALOUN

GRAYSLAKE - In the past, anyone capable of carrying a bucket of water could be called a firefighter.

Today, buckets are out; and helicopters, infrared detection systems, high-expansion foam additives and certifications are in.

"Fire fighting has become a specialized occupation requiring tremendous human and technological skills," explained James Suksi, dean of career programs for the College of Lake County.

"And firefighters are anxious to acquire and improve upon these necessary skills."

In 1971 the State of Illinois passed into law the Fire Protection and Training Act. It encourages the development of local fire protection through formal training and education.

SINCE THEN, COLLEGES throughout the state, including CLC, have offered courses in fire science technology.

"However, we must insure that the training provided is

SPORTS BRIEF

Leading all three days, Blair Subry of Antioch won his second straight Al McLean Memorial Junior Open last week at the Wilmette Park District golf course.

Subry had a two-shot lead after the first day with a round of 69 and maintained that margin after two days of play on a wet course.

On the final day, the blond-haired Northern Illinois University golfer breezed through the 36-hole test to come up with a 12-shot win. Subry fired 140 during the first two rounds and 144 in the final two for his 284 score.

In second was Dennis Loper of West Allis, Wis.

with 296 and third was John Lindert of Milwaukee at 301.

realtime, timely and comprehensive," Suksi said.

So, he researched and identified firefighting tasks - 384 of them.

"My study was designed to provide an inventory of tasks to be used for curriculum development and instructional improvement of state certified and certified advanced firefighter programs," Suksi said.

He classified the 384 tasks into 28 areas of responsibility. The Illinois Fire Protection Education Commission will use this classification as the basis for its statewide testing programs.

THE LIST INCLUDES such things as the ability to communicate essential information to non-English speaking persons in areas predominated by foreign-language groups; to extinguish radioactive material fires; to compute necessary engine pressure for a given hose distance; to operate an acetylene torch; to operate disaster and riot equipment; to provide emergency first aid; to conduct surveys of public information needs; to drive fire fighting vehicles and to register voters.

Nowhere is the ability to carry a bucket of water listed among the 384 fire-fighting tasks.

The bucket-brigade has bowed out.

• The first American heroine ever to be publicly acknowledged was Hannah Duston. Captured by the Indians on March 16, 1697, after a village raid that took the life of her one-year-old son, she managed to escape, killing ten braves along the way. On June 8 of that year, the General Court of Massachusetts voted Hannah a heroine . . . but gave the 25-pound monetary award to her husband!

Okay, everybody

By JERRY PFARR

"The Great Antioch Swim Challenge" has been accepted and the date has been set:

Tuesday, Aug. 23, at 6 p.m. at the Aqua Center. The challenge was hurled last week by Tom Kelly, president of the Antioch Savings & Loan Association.

A former college swimming star, Kelly agreed to contribute $100 to the Antioch Swim Club if certain persons could swim more laps in the pool than he could ... in a half-hour of swimming!

KELLY CHALLENGED Gordon Volling, president of the swim club's parents association, and said that "Gordy accepted, but figures he'll need a year to get ready. So we'll take him on next Spring."

Mr. Kelly also challenged the club's sponsor, the State Bank of Antioch.

Well, of course, Bill Brook, president of the State Bank, wasn't about to back down. He announced at last Thursday's Rotary meeting that he would send his hunting dog, Jet, into the pool against Kelly.

Mr. Brook said he planned to walk alongside the pool, with a duck extended from a stick, and Jet would chase the duck.

He also agreed to put up an additional $100 and stipulated that Mr. Kelly must swim in the bib overalls

Mrs. Bessie Fish celebrated her 90th birthday on July 14 by passing her Drivers License test.

Mrs. Fish, thought to be the oldest female license-holder in Illinois, has been driving for 50 years with no accidents. She drives a 1952 Plymouth which, she notes, "has never left me stranded by the roadside."

This remarkable lady lives alone on a farm outside of Havana in Mason County. Said Mrs. Fish, "I have no aches, no pains, and my hearing and eyes are in good order. I'm in better shape than a lot of the younger ones."

PERSPECTIVES

Is Old Testament history true?

By DOLALD COLE
Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

Christians believe that the history of the Old Testament is true. Things happened the way the Bible says they happened, when it says they happened. There is plenty of archeological evidence, and evidence from related fields, to prove the accuracy of Old Testament history. But not everybody is convinced. Why not? Because the Old Testament is full of miracles.

The problem for them is what may be termed the supernaturalism of the Bible. They are anti-supernaturalists, i.e. they cannot accept miracles. Until they learn better, libraries filled with archeological evidences in support of biblical statements will never convince them, which is a pity. Logic won't convince them either, inasmuch as their problem is chiefly spiritual, notwithstanding their reluctance to perceive it as such.

For Christians, the evidence of archeology and of reason is helpful. It confirms us in our belief; it strengthens our conviction that whereas reason does not make us believers, believing is not unreasonable. "By grace you are saved, through faith," the Bible says, and it is reassuring to know that the faith that saves is not at all unreasonable.

A typical scientist, on the other hand, thinks that miracles are contradictory to natural law and, therefore, cannot happen. But this is unscientific in that it rests on an unprovable assumption: the uniformity of nature. If nature doesn't always work the same way, i.e. uniformly, where does that leave the law of gravity?

Now here is a curious thing: the concept of the uniformity of nature, to which scientists appeal in defense of their unbelief, is basically theological. Scholars tell us that it is a concept widely held in the Middle Ages, based on the idea that God is tidy. Hence, the universe must reflect His orderliness. If the Creator is orderly, His creation must be orderly. How ironic that unbelievers have latched on to a theological concept and twisted it to support their unbelief in the supernatural!

Christians, on the other hand, are not upset by considerations of uniformity in nature. The most that can be said for the concept is that it reflects an aspect of the nature of God. But if God exists, who is to say that He cannot work miracles, as we perceive them to be, within the universe He Himself created? In the 77th Psalm Asaph remembers the deeds of the Lord. "Surely I will remember Thy wonders of old," he says ... "Thou art the God who workest wonders."

CAROLYN VAN PATTEN

FNB mortgage officer completes special class

Carolyn Van Patten of the First National Bank of Antioch graduated last Friday from the National School of Real Estate Finance, sponsored by the American Bankers Association and Ohio State University.

Mrs. Van Patten completed two one-week resident sessions at the Ohio State campus in addition to extension work geared to the actual operation of a mortgage department.

Mrs. Van Patten, who has been with First Bank for nearly 10 years, received advanced training in both residential and construction lending, in a curriculum designed to instruct students in the sound and profitable operation of a mortgage lending department.

BANKERS attending the school gain valuable insight and are better able to analyze and serve the real estate needs of their communities. Particular emphasis is placed on providing bankers and students with information they can use to increase mortgage lending, while their banks continue to offer a wide range of consumer and commercial services.

Nationwide, full service banks' contribution to housing-related areas totalled $246.7 billion as of December 1976, with $96.2 billion devoted to residential mortgages. The balance was committed to federal housing agencies, state and local housing-related bonds, mobil homes financing and loans to other housing lenders.

Carolyn lives with her husband, Roger, and their two children, Eric 8 and Aaron 5, at 801 Rinear Rd. in Antioch.

which he occasionally wears to Rotary meetings.

"I'M NOT SWIMMING against any dog," Brook quoted Kelly as saying.

"But he's of higher pedigree than you are," Brook reportedly responded, probably wearing a grin.

Monday, Mr. Brook received a letter from Mr. Kelly which said, in part:

"The park district has informed me they cannot allow your dog to swim in the pool no matter how excellent his pedigree ... I would therefore appreciate it if you would staff your challenging team with no more than four people, real people, who are employees or officers of the State Bank of Antioch. I would not expect Jackie Fields and Shelly Volling (teenage swimming stars) to be made employees in order to swim against me."

MR. BROOK SAID he wanted to commend and compliment Mr. Kelly on his offer to raise money for the swim club. So he has appointed Wally Jaskowski, the bank's swashbuckling assistant cashier, to conduct tryouts.

Jaskowski reports that at least seven bank employees have indicated a willingness to swim: Dave Lagerstrom, Karon Wiese, Diana Irmien, Debbie Haling, Nanci Eberman and Bob Pirko. An effort also is being made to have Dianne Periman appear in a bikini.

So it's all set for next Tuesday at 6 p.m.

Oh, by the way, Mr. Brook still wants Mr. Kelly to swim against Jet ... in the Osmond Park pond at the end of Hillandale Drive ... on Nov. 1.

"If the cold water doesn't bother Jet, it shouldn't bother Mr. Kelly," Mr. Brook said.

See, if things ever get dull in Antioch, just wait a minute. They'll think of something to liven it up.

Protect what you've put into your life

Most men think about life insurance when they first start a family.

But the older your family gets, the more you need life insurance—and the more life insurance you need.

The cost of living and children's financial needs grow with time. If your wife was suddenly left alone it would be tough for her to provide for your family.

So if life insurance was a good idea 20 years ago, it's an even better idea to call your Country Companies agent and review your life protection today.

The Country Companies. We're a little different than most insurance people.
